¹Restrictions apply. These fees and limits may vary. Consult terms, conditions, fees and account opening requirements at intercam.com.mx. ²Transactions with merchants and cash withdrawals at ATMs in a currency other than the currency available on the card will be converted into an available currency at an exchange rate determined by Mastercard® on the day the transaction is carried out, plus an additional percentage determined by the issuer. Visit intercamcashpassport.com.mx for more details. If the currency of your transaction coincides with one of the currencies on the card and there are enough funds in that currency to cover the entire transaction, the ATM fee for that currency will be applied. If the currency of your transaction does not coincide with one of the currencies on the card or there are not enough funds in the currency in question to cover the entire transaction, the USD ATM fee will be charged and it will be converted to the last currency used to finance the transaction at a foreign-currency exchange rate determined by Mastercard® on the day the transaction is carried out. Some ATMs and/or merchants charge an additional fee and set their own limits. Inquire as to applicable fees and limits before performing your transaction. ³Call Mastercard Call Center to know the foreign banks that apply and more about this service. ⁴If the card balance is below the amount needed to pay the fee because a monthly inactivity fee has been charged, we will not apply the difference. ⁵The Currency Transfer fee is subject to an exchange rate that will be communicated to you at the time of the transaction. ⁶The amount range goes from $250 USD to $1,000 USD or its equivalent in other currency. Amount defined and limited by each bank. ⁷You will be charged a fee of $2 USD if you recharge less than the established minimum. ⁸Subject to Contract. Multi-currency Cash Passport Card is made by Intercam Banco S.A. Institución de Banca Múltiple, Intercam Grupo Financiero under license from Mastercard® International Inc. Mastercard® and the Mastercard® logo are trademarks registered to Mastercard® International Incorporated. The product does not pay interest or yields on the funds that remain on the card. Amounts in USD or MXN or their equivalent in any other currency.
